Re: Retirement Letter

Mayor Belmont and Members of the Town Board:

Attached please find a letter of retirement from Mrs. Donna Pellicci to be effective as of August 15, 2014. She will be taking her 20 vacation days prior to that date, so her last official working day will be July 18, 2014.

Mrs. Pellicci has worked in the Records Bureau at the Harrison Police Department for 15 years. I request that her retirement be accepted by the Town Board and to acknowledge her for her years of dedicated service to our department.

Respectfully submitted,

Anthony Marraccini
Chief of Police

Harrison, NY 10528

Dear Chief Marraccini,

This will serve as my official letter of retirement effective Friday, August 15, 2014 from my Office Assistant – Automated Systems position in the Records Department at the Harrison Police Department.

My last day working will be Friday, July 18, 2014 and I plan to take my 20 vacation days to bring me to my official retirement date of Friday, August 15, 2014.

I will be retiring after 15 years working with the Town of Harrison; it has been a most gratifying experience working with all of the fine members of HPD.

Please accept my sincere thanks for everything.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Donna M. Pellicci".

Donna M. Pellicci
